

Kirk R. Wormington – CenturionCARES President & CEO

Kirk Wormington is the President & CEO of CenturionCARES. Kirk has grown up in the CenturionCARES family, with the company being co-founded in 1981 by his father Jack Wormington. Kirk spent over 20 years helping ensure the success of CenturionCARES' financial industry clients before assuming the role of Executive Vice President of Business Development. Today Kirk oversees the sales and marketing teams, focused on understanding and satisfying the needs of customers in multiple vertical markets including Credit Unions, Banks, and Mortgage Companies, Government Agencies, Public and Private Utilities, Housing Authorities, and Insurance Providers.

Kirk's strives to welcome each and every customer into the CenturionCARES family and to do whatever possible to ensure that family member's success. That commitment has helped the company maintain its well-earned reputation for "Doing What We Said We Would Do".

